They wouldn't worry if they didn't care!

- Jay: Hey, look at this. A boy left school at 15 and became a millionaire!
- Shahid: His family were already rich, right?
- Jay: No, it says that he lived with his mother in a small flat.
- Shahid: Well, only a few people get that kind of success so young. Everyone would be a millionaire if it was so easy. But it isn't.
- Jay: Well, I wouldn't feel so stressed out if I had a million pounds.
- Shahid: Why, what's the matter?
- Jay: I got an e-mail today. I didn't get the lead part in that dance show. "You can be a backing dancer," they told me. But I want to be the lead dancer!
- Shahid: Jay, relax. Your big chance will come. Anyway, you know you can't leave school until you're 18. If you just dropped out now, you wouldn't have any choices later.
- Jay: But I want to be rich and famous.
- Shahid: As what? Money doesn't just grow on trees. You have to work for it.
- Jay: As a dancer or a singer! If Mum and Dad believed in my talent, they wouldn't tell me to do my homework all the time. But they don't believe in me. They always compare me with perfect Olivia, who gets perfect marks. Aarrgh!
- Shahid: They're sure you'll get a good job one day if you get better marks now. They wouldn't worry if they didn't care. And you are a bit laid-back.
- Jay: That's easy for you to say! Look, here's your picture on a magazine again! You make easy money as a model just because you look good. If I didn't have to go to school, I'd go to London and be a model too!
- Shahid: But I do modelling just for fun! I'd be stupid if I just relied on my looks, so that's why I'm studying for a career in IT. If I make the right plans now, I'll have more choices later. And if you make the right choices, you'll find your place too.

- a) Read the news report about David Karp. What were David's thoughts at the different times before and during his career? Finish his sentences and make conditional clauses type 1.

Tumblr founder David Karp has just sold his New York business to Yahoo for $1.1 billion. He began learning HTML at the age of 11 and was soon designing websites for businesses. "I always used a deep voice when I was on the phone so people didn't know how young I was!" he says. Karp dropped out of school at the age of 15 and developed Tumblr, the social network company, in the bedroom of his mother's small flat. In 2009, the magazine BusinessWeek named Karp 'Best Young Tech Entrepreneur'.

Example: 1. I'll be able to design websites for businesses if I learn HTML.

Holiday, celebrate

If we took a holiday
Took some time to celebrate
Just one day out of life
It would be, it would be so nice

Everybody spread the word
We're gonna have a celebration
All across the world
In every nation

It's time for the good times
Forget about the bad times
One day to come together,
to release the pressure
We need a holiday

If we took a holiday
Took some time to celebrate
(Come on, let's celebrate)
Just one day out of life
It would be, it would be so nice

Jay: If I took a holiday for one day, I'd ...
- b) Your turn: What would be a special holiday for you? Finish the sentence in a) for yourself.
